

APPENDIX I

Patterns on each page were generated by individual answers to 25 statements regarding their social identities and privileges.

A survey containing the following 25 statements was sent out to participants for data collection.

5	4	3	2	1
10	9	8	7	6
15	14	13	12	11
20	19	18	17	16
25	24	23	22	21

1. I receive benefits in life because of my gender identity.
2. I have never been denied an opportunity because of my gender.
3. I've never had to change my behavior to be more aligned with my perceived gender (e.g. talked differently, changed my outfit, etc.).
4. I still identify as the gender I was born in.
5. I can walk alone or take a taxi late at night without fear of sexual assault.
6. Coming to college, financial situation has not been a challenge.
7. My parents fully support me financially (tuition, daily allowance, etc.).
8. I've never turned down a dinner/travel invitation because of my financial situation.
9. I haven't had to work part-time jobs in order to support myself or my family.
10. Both of my parents or guardians have a college degree.
11. I never doubted my parents' acceptance of my sexual orientation.
12. I have not felt marginalized because of my sexual orientation.
13. I have never had to hide my sexual orientation.
14. I have never pretended to be "just friends" with my significant other.
15. I'm always comfortable with public display of affections with my partner in public.
16. I have never been mocked for my accent.
17. I have never been the only person of my race in a room.
18. A stranger has never asked to touch my hair, or asked if it is real.
19. I have not been looked down upon because of my nationality, race or ethnicity.
20. I have never been discriminated against because of my skin color.
21. I'm mostly comfortable with how my national, racial identity or sexual identity is portrayed in the media.
22. I have never been diagnosed as having a physical or mental illness or disability.
23. I have never been bullied or made fun of based on something that you can't change.
24. There hasn't been a situation where I'm uncomfortable about a joke or statement related to my race, religion, ethnicity, gender, disability, or sexual orientation
25. I have never tried to distance myself from any of my identities.